Sir,

Dated:- 20th March 1953.

Sub:- PENSIONERS - Re-employment - Sri S. Ramachandra Rao Accounts Clerk, District Court, Bellary - Continuance.

I am to forward for orders of Government a copy of letter P.R. No.95/53-A dated 3-3-53 from the District Judge, Bellary on the above subject and to state that in the circumstances set out therein, the Hon'ble the Judges recommend the re-employment of Sri S. Ramachandra Rao, Accounts Clerk, Dt. Court, Bellary for a further period of one year from 13-4-1953.

I have the honour to be,

Copy of letter No.P.R. 95/53-A dated 3rd March 1953 from the District Judge, Bellary to the Registrar of the High Court, Madras.

Sir,

Sub:- PUBLIC SERVICES - Reemployment of Pensioners - Sri S. Ramachandra Rao - Continuance of reemployment Recommended.

Ref:- G.O.Rt.No.143 Finance, Department dated 1-3-1952 communicated with High Court's R.Dis.No.313/52 dated 7-3-1952.

Sri S. Ramachandra Rao (Pensioner) ex-clerk of this Court was reemployed as an accounts clerk of this Court from 13-4-1952 under G.O.Rt.No.143 Finance Department dated 1-3-1952 for a period of one year. His reemployment expires on 13-4-1953.

2. A temporary Subordinate Judge's Court at Bellary and two Additional District Munsifs' Courts - one at Bellary and the other at Hospet, have been sanctioned upto 31-12-1953 for the present.

3. The sanctioned strength of lower division clerks is 30, besides 13 temporary clerks sanctioned for the temporary courts. Out of these, 16 are temporary clerks appointed at present under the emergency provision. 15 clerks were allotted by the Public Service Commission, of whom only 8 clerks have joined and the rest of the clerks did not join their posts. The names of four clerks have been deleted from the list as they did not join duty. Some of the Public Service Commission candidates are trying to go away to their native districts. Even the temporary clerks are not likely to stick to the temporary posts as their appointments are not guaranteed and the result is a great dearth of experienced clerks more especially of the type of Sri S.Ramachandra Rao. On account of emergency clerks and the short stay of the Service Commission candidates the efficiency of the office is likely to suffer in the absence of experienced clerks.

4. Sri S. Ramachandra Rao has passed Civil Judicial Test and Account Test, and with his experience of several years and thorough knowledge of Account matters, he will be of much use to this office, if he is reemployed for one more year as no one is trained in that branch on account of the frequent changes. He is still energetic, efficient and diligent in his work. He is drawing a pension of Rs.39-5-0 P.M. and only Rs.42-11-0 will have to be paid to him which is less than the pay of a lower division clerk. He has been doing his work very satisfactorily even during reemployment. Under the above circumstances, I consider that the continuance of this clerk for one more year is necessary for the efficient administration of the office.

I therefore request that the High Court will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government for his continuance as an accounts clerk for a period of one year from 13-4-1953 under Rule 520 of the Pension Code.

DISTRICT JUDGE.

Establishment – Bellary dist. – Ramachandra Rao, Sri S. Accounts Clerk, Dt. Court, Bellary – Re-employment – Continuance

From the High Court Roc No. 1740/53-C2 d 20.3.53

This file deals with the proposal of the High Court to continue the re-employment of Sri S. Ramachandra Rao, Accounts Clerk, Dt. Court, Bellary for a further period of one year from 13.4.1953.

2. The facts of the case are briefly as follows.

Sri S. Ramachandra Rao was re-employed for a period of one year from 13.4.52 in Gro Rt. 143 Finance, d. 1-3-52 with reference to the orders in Gro Ms No. 599, Finance, d 12-6.50 wherein the Govt. permitted the re-employment of retired clerks with accounts experience in view of the dearth of experienced clerks. For the reasons stated in paras 3 & 4 on pp 3-4 of, the Dt. Judge, Bellary considers that the continuance of this clerk for one more year is necessary for the efficient administration of the office. The Judges of the High Court have recommended the re-employment of Sri Ramachandra Rao for a further period of one year from 13.4.53.

3 Go. Ms No. 599, Fin., d 12.6.50 in which the Govt. permitted the re-employment of retired clerks with accounts experience will be in force till 30.6.1953. In Go. Ms No. 259, Fin. d 23.2.53, the Govt. have decided that there is no need for permitting re-employment of accounts clerks after the present sanction lapses for the reason that all the accounts clerks in deptl. offices have been given training in the office of the AG. every year for the last 4 years. The Govt. have also informed the Heads of Depts in that Go. that no proposals for re-employment of clerks with accounts experience in deptl. offices should be subd. to Govt. after 30.6.53.

4. The Dt. Judge says that no one is trained in the Accounts Branch in his Court on account of frequent changes and that Sri Ramachandra Rao will be of much use with his experience of several years and thorough knowledge of account matters will be of much use, if he is re-employed for one more year. The High Court has recommended the proposal.

5. Subd. for orders. If the recommendation of the High Court is to be agreed to, the file may be transferred to Fin. for issue of orders.

May be agreed to as a special case
